FRANKLIN COUNTY SHERIFF JIM RAYMOND
ELECTED TO EXECUTIVE BOARD OF STATEWIDE LAW ENFORCEMENT ORGANIZATION

(Lacey) --- Franklin County Sheriff Jim Raymond has been elected to a full three-year term on the executive board of the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs (WASPC). He was first appointed to the leadership team of the 14-member executive board to fill an unexpired term in 2019.

“Sheriff Raymond has been a longtime leader statewide, and we are pleased that he has been reelected by his fellow Sheriffs and Chiefs to this critical role in law enforcement policy and advocacy,” said Steve Strachan, WASPC executive director. “We appreciate his leadership.”

WASPC was founded in 1963 and consists of executive and top management personnel from law enforcement agencies statewide. With more than 900 members it includes the 39 elected county sheriffs, and 240 police chiefs, as well as the Washington State Patrol, the Washington Department of Corrections, and representatives of several federal agencies.

WASPC is the only association of its kind in the nation combining representatives from local, state, tribal, and federal law enforcement into a single body, working toward a common goal. WASPC's function is to provide specific materials and services to all law enforcement agencies in the state, members and non-members alike.
